to support homeless youth

Impactful

For more than 30 years our award-winning organisation has provided an inspirational, evidence based and innovative approach to supporting homeless young people to achieve independence. These vulnerable young people have been made homeless through no fault of their own and we support them with a safe home, family environment, education, employment, and an opportunity to recover and go on to live their best life.

A Very Special Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Opportunity

Successful companies are those that align their business with their employees' personal values. The top performers want to work for companies that give back to the community and make the world a better place.. Stepping Stone House designs and implements CSR programs that help companies provide an unparalleled experience for their employees and customers and in turn transform the lives of vulnerable young people.

If you want your business to...

- Find practical and outcome-oriented avenues for your employees and customers to give back to the community
- Contribute to the research and development of meaningful social impact
- Personally implement adventure and education programs to inspire disadvantaged youth
- Get to know the people whose lives you are transforming
- Enhance your reputation by aligning with an award winning charity that is solving youth homelessness

Then a partnership with Stepping Stone House is for you.

The difference you will make

Our corporate partners help us to provide award winning programs that are focused on saving lives, rebuilding trust, self-esteem, education and life skills for displaced and traumatised youth. The outcomes are both visual and impactful. Our partners don't build houses; they build safe homes. They don't fund staff; they create a family environment and an opportunity for youngsters to recover and go on to live their best life.
