Just a few hours of your time can make a lifetime's difference

Welcome from our Regatta Chair Max Connery

Our 21st Regatta had a euphoric and joyous atmosphere, after we weathered an unexpected storm! I invite you to our 22nd event.

The other side of the coin is your participation which makes a difference to the lives of these young people experiencing homelessness who come to Stepping Stone House at Dulwich Hill.

This Regatta produces sailing with competition and fun. The handicapper tries to have as many yachts as possible crossing the line almost together. After all, we are accidents of birth and arrive on this glorious planet to enjoy and treasure it. What better place than Sydney Harbour to enjoy sailing.

The Regatta and Bridge Days are very important to the livelihood of Stepping Stone House. I hope you can join us.

I appreciate what one of our great supporters has said about the event.

“What makes the world great is philanthropy. Philanthropy means the love of humanity, the desire to promote the welfare of others. Stepping Stone House actively helps the lives of homeless young people. The ‘Crackerjack’ team recognise their efforts and hope to support the Regatta for as long as we can. Good on you to all the sailors and donors who participate and of course the organisers. The world is getting better.”

Chris Harper, Crackerjack

Last December, Stepping Stone completed a beautiful renovation of its co-cultural house. It has an Aboriginal consultant and staff. This house was upgraded by the Property Industry Foundation which was introduced to us through a supporter of this Regatta.

Richard Lawson, Race Co-ordinator

As I sit writing these words we are hopefully emerging to 'a new beginning'. Thanks to your amazing support for the March 2021 Regatta we had an outstanding day with a wonderful vibe amongst everyone. You may remember the most unusual weather pattern which greeted us on the race course but did not dampen anyone's spirits! Please join us again on 24 March when we will endeavour to produce another great day of 'fun raising' for 22nd event of SSH Regatta 2022. For further information on the yacht racing go to RSYS website, click on the 'Sailing tab', then select 'Regattas'. The NOR/SI's will be found there. Should you have any questions contact Richard Lawson 0416 088 111.

Sandy Lawson, Bridge Convenor

After a long period of lockdown in 2021, we look forward to welcoming Bridge players to a relaxing day of cards and lunch for you and your friends on Tuesday 22 March.
